- Implementing mobile applications, delivering new features as well as maintaining and improving the existing features with an incremental and continuous improvement approach
- Delivering high quality React Native apps using agile practices
- Understand business requirements and translate them into technical requirements
- Support the entire application lifecycle, including concept, design, test, release and support
- Stay up to date with the latest technology trends
- Mentor other developers in the team

ABOUT YOU

- Strong knowledge and commercial experience of React-Native cross-platform mobile application development 4+ years
- Strong knowledge of ReactJS
- Experience with Kotlin
- Experience with the full software development life-cycle for Mobile Apps, as well as, unit and UI tests
- Knowledge of programming and architecture patterns
- Prior experience building native mobile applications for iOS or Android
- Proficient understanding of web markup, including HTML5, CSS3 and of JavaScript frameworks
- Experience working with RESTful APIs to integrate with our backend e-commerce solutions
- Experience in integrating Swift/Objective-C/Java libraries with React Native
- Bachelor or higher diploma in Computer Science or related technical field
- A flexible personality with strong analytical and problem-solving skills
- Strong English or German communication skills: level B1/B2 or higher
